

Stonehenge Tunnel: starting gun fired at Salisbury Racecourse

Blog posted on April 15, 2019 by Stonehenge Alliance

The much anticipated Preliminary Meeting for Examination of Highways England's A303 Stonehenge Development Consent Order (DCO) application was held at the invitation of the Examining Authority earlier this month. It was a crowded bureaucratic affair coloured by some unexpectedly challenging questions from participants about restrictive covenants, invisible references and administrative blunders. Was it the theatre of the absurd?
