

CAMPAIGN UPDATE

On Wednesday (23rd June) the legal challenge to Grant Shapps' decision to approve the highly damaging road scheme through the World Heritage Site will be heard at the High Court. The hearing, which is likely to last for 3 days, may be the last chance to stop this government's wanton destruction.

The hearing is taking place in person at the Royal Courts of Justice, but only the legal team will be allowed to attend. The public can watch proceedings online, but need to register with the court, the day before (on the Tuesday) as follows:

- To observe proceedings remotely, people need to email listoffice@administrativecourtoffice.justice.gov.uk no earlier than Tuesday 22nd June, with case ref. no. CO/4844/2020.
- A link will be sent to them up to 15 minutes before the hearing.

Please note It is illegal to record or take any screenshots of proceedings.

These instructions are on our home page here.

Thanks to your support the target has nearly been reached but not quite. Please continue to encourage people to sign the petition and contribute to the crowdjustice appeal.

Fingers crossed the case goes well but the outcome of the case wont be known for some time, possibly several months.

Don't let Government get away with desecrating our unique Stonehenge World Heritage Site.

It is not acceptable to plough through Stonehenge World Heritage Site regardless of UNESCO's opposition, the Examiners' recommendation not to proceed and public opinion from around the world.
