

JUDGEMENT PUBLISHED

Message for supporters and donors of Stonehenge Alliance from John Adams, OBE, Acting Chairman, Stonehenge Alliance written on 30
July 2021

"We were delighted to hear today that Save Stonehenge WHS's legal challenge was successful and the Development Consent Order for the A303 Stonehenge scheme has been quashed.

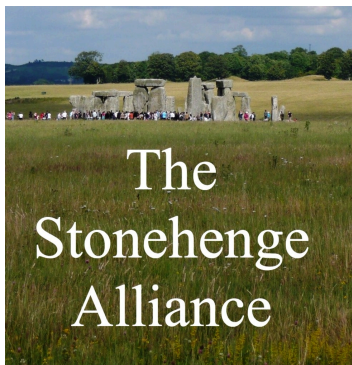

"The judge found that the Transport Secretary did not have all of the evidence needed lawfully to carry out the 'heritage' balancing exercise required by planning policy; and that he had unlawfully left out of account consideration of a less damaging alternative to the scheme, such as a longer tunnel.

"Our warmest congratulations and heartfelt thanks go to all of our supporters without whom the Stonehenge Alliance could not have campaigned so effectively and SSWHS could not have made its legal challenge.

"Despite today's fantastic victory, the battle may not be over. The Secretary of State may appeal against the judgement or, possibly, amend the scheme. Nevertheless, we will fight on for our World Heritage Site, if necessary, and hope you are prepared to stand by us!"
